

Short Course on Monitoring & Evaluation

January 22—26, 2018
Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

Short Course Rationale

Health professionals, health program managers & staff, and researchers face many questions related to the monitoring and evaluation (M&E) of Population, Health & Nutrition programs. Monitoring and evaluation skills are crucial to design, implement, monitor, and evaluate PHN programs. This short course on essentials of monitoring and evaluation tools and techniques is organized in order to build the capacity of professionals in Ethiopia. Addis Continental Institute of Public Health has more than a decade of experience in providing M&E training for national and international participants.

Short Course Objective

The objective of this Short course is to enable participants understand the basic concepts and practical M&E for population, health, and nutrition programs.

Short Course Content

This short course offers an intensive training that will cover the fundamental concepts, M&E frameworks, indicators, information sources and systems, evaluation designs, designing and implementing monitoring and evaluation plans, data quality, and utilization and feedback of M&E results. Short Course attendees will gain hands-on experience in designing monitoring and evaluation plans by doing exercises, and working in small groups throughout the Short Course.

Eligibility

This course targets mid-level health and population officers, M&E specialists, program managers, and other professionals involved with the implementation of health programs. Applicants should be proficient in English and conversant with computer applications.

Training Venue and Fee

The venue of the Short Course is at ACIPH Head Quarter Addis Ababa. This short course is equivalent to three credit hour course. Participants are expected to pay the regular tuition fee for graduate level three credit hour course at Addis Continental Institute of Public Health, which is Birr 4935.

Application Procedures and Deadlines

- 1) Obtain application form from the Institute website
- 2) Submit completed application form to ACIPH registrar
- 3) Deadline for submission of application is 20 December 2017

For further information

Call +251 11 6390034/04 or

Email: Seada Beyan Seadabaciph@gmail.com

Information and application forms can be obtained at:

<http://www.addiscontinental.edu.et>